The mission of the Solo & Small Firm Section is to improve solo and small firm practitioners' ability to meet with distinction the demands and expectations of their clients, the courts, the legal profession, and their communities. The Section pursues its mission by promoting the ethical and efficient practice of law; providing educational and practice resources oriented toward these firms; establishing and maintaining relationships with other bar entities and other organizations; and monitoring legislative, judicial, and other developments affecting the interests of this constituency within the Alabama State Bar.
